

WELCOME TO

THE NEW ORLEANS FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER

Following is a list of all the services available to survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault at the Family Justice Center (FJC). Please take your time to review this list, and check any services that interest you. Visitors to the FJC may seek any, or none, of the services available. No information will be shared by any of these organizations without written permission. All service providers indicated with an “*” are mandated reporters of child abuse and neglect.

(Please ✓ next to any service you may be interested in receiving)

_____ CRESCENT HOUSE CASE MANAGER* (ON-SITE): All visitors to the FJC are asked to speak with a case manager who will provide you with additional information about services available to meet your needs. The services include children’s therapeutic play, individual counseling, support groups ect. The case manager is available to provide you with immediate/ long-term case management assistance.

_____ ADVOCACY: Anything you share with these advocates will be confidential, and will only be shared with your permission. The following Advocates will assist you upon your request:

- Civil Court Advocate (Off-Site)
Can assist you at Civil District Court with information about filing for a temporary restraining order.
- District Attorney Advocate (Off-Site):
Can assist you if you have a state case pending in criminal court.
- Municipal Court Advocate (On-Site):
Can assist you if you have a pending case in municipal court initiated by a police item number, or if you have a summons regarding a domestic violence incident.
- NOPD Advocate (On-Site)
Can assist you by connecting you with a Domestic Violence Detective assigned to your case and providing you with item # associated with your case.

_____ CHILD ADVOCACY CENTER (Off-Site): Counseling/forensic interviews in child sexual abuse cases

_____ CHILDREN’S SERVICES*: If you have brought any children aged 3 or over with you today, they can spend time with a child care worker in the Children’s Room. There are activities available for children during your appointments today.

_____ POLICE*: There are Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Detectives from the New Orleans Police Department available to speak with you. If you want to report a crime, or simply want information about how the police can help you to stay safe, please ask to speak with the NOPD Advocate.

_____ LEGAL SERVICES: The following lawyers will assist you upon your request:

- Child Sexual Abuse (On-Site)- Offers Consultation and Information in Civil Child Sexual Abuse Cases
- District Attorney (On-Site)- Assists with Pending Criminal Case
- Immigration and Refugee Services (Off-Site)- VAWA, asylum, U visa, naturalization
- Municipal Court Attorney (On-Site)- Assists with Pending Municipal Case
- New Orleans Legal Assistance (Off-Site)- Divorce, Custody, Civil Matters, and Information on Legal Rights
- Project SAVE (On-Site)- Civil Legal Representation Provided such as TRO’s and Protective Orders